Commission Accelerator

If you've ever been interested in jumping into affiliate marketing but you found yourself asking a million different questions such as:

- WHAT kind of products should I promote?
- WHERE do I find the best products?
- HOW do I get paid?

Then this special report is exactly what you've been looking for because not only will I show you how to uncover the best, highest paying products in affiliate marketing but you'll uncover some of the most powerful time-saving strategies ever revealed so that you can jumpstart your affiliate marketing career while shortcutting the entire process!

You know for yourself that affiliate marketing is where the real money is. As an affiliate you don't ever have to worry about the cost and time involved in product creation, or dealing with customer support (Amen!). As an affiliate, your only job is to drive targeted traffic to hot, high converting offers that sell like hotcakes, and then sit back and collect the paycheck at the end of each day.

And now is the best time to get started. You see, years ago affiliate marketing while still viable, required a lot more effort than it does today.

With fewer products on the marketplace, a lower number of viable markets, and limited options in terms of how you got paid, what type of offers you were able to promote and even how you were allowed to promote them, setting up campaigns were often incredibly frustrating and time consuming.

And at the end of the day, it wasn't always so rewarding, especially if you weren't even sure how much you earned or when you'd get paid for all of the work involved.

But today, the affiliate marketing arena is entirely different. Not only are you given unlimited options in regards to the type of products you promote, but there is an endless supply of high quality products in every market imaginable that you can feel proud to promote.

Don't forget, in affiliate marketing, your name is all that you have and so the last thing you ever want to do is promote shoddy offers or questionable products. Thankfully, with an ever-growing marketplace that was created with affiliate marketers in mind – and where the entire community is focused on transparency, you will never have to worry about any of that again!

Here is the ultimate affiliate resource available to you today: <http://www.JVZoo.com>

When JV Zoo popped onto the scene, everything changed almost instantly. It was quickly picked up by thousands of marketer's who were eager to spread the word. They wanted their products featured in the marketplace and they wanted their affiliates to sign up to promote their offers. It was a win-win situation.

But what made JV Zoo so incredibly remarkable was it's incredible ease of use. Within minutes you can set up an affiliate account and start browsing through the marketplace of high quality products and even if you don't know what markets to focus on, you can join their affiliate newsletter and receive tips and suggestions on hot products to consider!

It's one of the easiest ways to get started in affiliate marketing today.

You'll be able to gain instant access to the newest, freshest and highest quality products online, plus you'll be able to connect directly with merchants and product developers while participating in affiliate contests and promotions – all from within one ever-growing community!

To help you get started, we've created this special report focusing on the benefits of joining JVZoo and more importantly, how you can start making money as a JVZoo affiliate right away.

Best of all, there are absolutely no start-up or upfront costs involved so you're free to start making money without spending it.

Let me show you how!

Instant Payday Every Day

JV Zoo did what few other marketplaces were able to do - they found a way to easily connect product owners with active affiliates who are eager to promote them. They knew exactly what affiliate marketer's AND merchants wanted and built their entire platform on the basis of this one, all-important component: Instant Commission Payments!

Here's how it works:

- 1) You create your affiliate account at <http://www.JVZoo.com>
- 2) You connect your Paypal account to your JV Account.
- 3) You choose high converting products to promote.
- 4) You funnel traffic to these offers.
- 5) You get paid instantly!

With JVZoo there is no waiting around for payments. Their entire system runs on automating the payment process so that you are paid instantly through Paypal each time you make a sale.

JV Zoo utilizes Paypal's adaptive payment system that allows payments to be split - so that one payment goes directly to you and the remaining payment goes to the merchant or vendor.

But it gets even better. With the old way of handling split payments, the script used to direct a customer through the payment process would typically rotate the order button. This was done to distribute payments between the sellers and affiliate marketers based on the sellers payout offer.

So for example, an affiliate generated a sale on a product that offered 50% commissions, the first sale would be made directly via Paypal to the vendor and the second sale would go through the affiliate's Paypal account. The problem with this is an obvious one: Refund rates went through the roof!

Customers were confused. They didn't understand why they were paying split payments and in many cases they would simply assume that they had paid twice by accident or were over-charged for the payment. Even when affiliates and vendors tried to clarify the system to potential customers it only further convoluted the entire process. In response, customers would request refunds even before they had a chance to enjoy the product.

And it got worse. When a customer requested a refund the vendor would have to check their account to confirm that they received it and if not, they had to find the affiliate responsible and contact them on the customer's behalf.

Then, the vendor had to trust that the affiliate would promptly refund the customer. Needless to say, it was a total logistics nightmare!

But with JVZoo, a single payment is made and split between the affiliate, the vendor and JVZoo itself. And if a customer ever requests a refund, Paypal can automatically deduce the split payment amount from all accounts involved. No nonsense, no hassle.

In fact, JVZoo handles all customer support for all buyers acting as the middleman between you, the vendors you promote and the customers you recruit. This frees up your time and gives you the peace of mind that your reputation is never on the line. Customers will always be taken care of.

Imagine just how more motivated you would be if you knew that you'd get paid TODAY for all of your marketing efforts.

No worrying about paychecks ending up "lost in the mail" (Ha! Never again!), or merchant's ripping you off with lower payment amounts. Simply choose a hot product from JVZoo's marketplace and once approved you can begin generating instant cash right away!

Choosing Guaranteed Sellers

Once you've set up your JVZoo account it's time to select the products that you are going to promote. For many, this is the hardest part. They just aren't sure what kind of products are currently selling, what is most likely to convert and whether the products are going to continue to sell later on should they take the time to set up a pre-sell page or create a bonus offer.

The easiest way to uncover hot selling products is to run a quick “search scan” on a handful of products you are interested in promoting. Begin by scanning the JVZoo marketplace, create a swipe file of potential products (writing down the merchant name and product title, along with commission offered), and then run it through Google.com. Look at what others are saying about the product, whether there are other affiliates promoting it and if there is a lot of positive feedback about the product.

You should do the same thing with vendors and merchants. It's important to know who you are promoting because it ultimately reflects on you, the affiliate. You never want to direct people to questionable products or to merchants who don't offer prompt customer support so run a quick search on everyone you plan to work with, as well as every product you plan to promote. It might end up saving you a lot of frustration (and trouble) later on.

One of the great features of JVZoo is that they've made it very easy to search for top products to promote.

Begin by visiting <http://www.JVZoo.com/affiliates/findproducts> and enter in keywords relating to different niches or markets that you are interested in.

You can also search and sort the entire “Find products” page based on certain criteria. For example, if you are interested in finding hot new WSO's (Warrior Special Offers) to promote, you can sort products based on those available through the Warrior Forum. Just select "WSO" from the filter drop down box on the product search page!

For those who are interested in promoting products from the marketing, eCommerce and online business space, here are a few reputable sellers worth considering:

Types of products currently available:

Traffic generation, SEO, affiliate marketing, PLR, exclusive rights products, business tools & software, and much more.

Simon Hodgkinson

Types of products currently available:

Bloggging tools, mobile marketing products, list building products, sales page graphics and much more.

Other Merchants:

Tip: You can subscribe to any merchant page by clicking the "Subscribe" button on their profile. When you subscribe to a vendor's page you will receive automated updates whenever a new product is available!

Another great feature of JVZoo is that they easily integrate into Warrior Forum offers (WSO's). So if you are a current member of the WarriorForum.com you can easily scout out current offers from members you know and trust.

The integration is done through their "Automated WSO Failover System" which essentially recreates the offer so that the information is available directly on JVZoo. That also means that in the event the Warrior Forum goes down for any period of time, sales will never be affected!

Profitable Affiliate Competitions

PROFITABLE Affiliate Program

One of the easiest ways to make more money in affiliate marketing, while building a recognized name (so that people begin to come to you with additional offers, networking opportunities and future partnerships) is to join as many affiliate challenges and competitions as possible.

Not only will you make more money but also you'll be able to claim your share of valuable prizes and rewards while pushing your name out in front of key players.

One of the easiest ways to stay on top of upcoming launches through JVZoo as well as the entire online business arena is to subscribe to <http://www.JVNotifyPro.com> - a free online community that publishes news and information on upcoming product launches. You should also join the Warrior Forum at <http://www.WarriorForum.com> paying special attention to the WSO (Warrior Special Offers) section as many products offered through the JVZoo platform are first announced there.

Once you've uncovered an affiliate competition that you're interested in, create a file for the offer that includes all of the affiliate promotional tools and material available.

This may include graphics, ad copy, email copy, blog posts, articles and more. These were designed to help you build powerful campaigns that will convert, so take advantage of all the creative that are made available to you.

Next, secure important virtual real estate so that you're able to swipe traffic from the search engines. This would include a Squidoo URL (<http://www.Squidoo.com>), blogger.com and Wordpress.com websites and maybe a keyword-based domain name in the event you plan to create full content sites around the products you are promoting.

You can also find affiliate contests directly through JVZoo as well. Here's an example of a recent competition made available to JVZoo affiliate members:

<https://www.jvzoo.com/contest10kaug12>

Make sure to stay subscribed to JVZoo's newsletter so that you're given immediate notice of upcoming contests and competitions.

Just the same, you should subscribe to your favorite vendors product and news feed so that you can receive alerts whenever they are ready to roll out a new product or launch an affiliate competition.

Make More Money From Every Campaign

One of the easiest ways to jack up sales and stand out from the crowd is to offer auxiliary components and bonus products to those who purchase through your JVZoo affiliate link.

Everyone loves freebies and so by offering bonus products that are valuable and exclusively available through your affiliate link you are instantly able to beef up the value of the entire offer - at no extra cost to your customer!

(Not only will this instantly increase conversion rates but people will absolutely love you! You can easily build a trusted brand just by over-delivering value with every product you promote.)

Think about it - if you were going to purchase a product anyway but someone offered you something extra, at no cost, just to purchase through their link - why wouldn't you do it?

It's not costing you anything yet you are able to get more bang out of your buck. Well that's exactly why bonus products have always worked so well for affiliates, and always will. It's our way of increasing the value of the products we promote even though we have absolutely no part of the creation process.

We just add extra goodies to the offer that we know will help the customer and we're good to go!

So, what kind of bonus offers should you offer to potential customers?

It all depends on the type of product you are promoting. For example if you were promoting a product that taught beginners how to get involved in social media, you might offer a bonus package that included a "Cheat Sheet of Top Social Media Sites", or a package of twitter backgrounds or Facebook marketing graphics. As long as your bonus is themed to what the main product is about and extends the value in some way, it's bound to be a hot seller.

The cool thing about JVZoo is that they also offer instant bonus fulfillment so that you never have to worry about making sure bonus products are delivered to customers!

Just fill in a simple form that includes the product title, bonus name, URL (or you can upload the bonus package to JVZoo's servers) and it's set to go! JVZoo will automatically deliver it with every successful sale. Talk about true automation and simplicity! Even total newbies can become heavy-hitters in the affiliate arena just by taking advantage of the many options available to them through JVZoo.

And aside from simplifying things, JVZoo will also save you money by offering to host the products for you!

The Ultimate Handshake

Once you've secured your place in the affiliate marketing arena by doing the necessary footwork such as establishing a reputation for honesty and value and promoting the heck out of people's products, it's likely that you're going to end up on the radar of countless marketer's and product developers. When this happens, you'll be given the unique opportunity to join forces with some of the most recognized merchants online!

It truly is the ultimate handshake because once you've begun to show up on the "Who's Who" list in the affiliate marketing arena you'll open unlimited doors and be given instant access to countless opportunities to network and partner up with the best of the best.

This is also a great time to begin building your very own affiliate army who can promote your products!

You want to align with the strongest force in your market and you can easily do this by identifying the top 5-10 key players and becoming part of their circle.

And how do you do this?

By becoming their #1 affiliate! What better way to get their attention than by sending them a massive swarm of fresh, new customers? Create an entire campaign around a leading marketer in your niche and do everything possible to promote their very best products.

Set up landing pages, build content pages around their products, set up a quick review page on Squidoo.com to generate quick traffic through your links and generate as much exposure as possible through multiple channels.

This might include:

- Forum marketing
- Solo ads & ad swaps
- Newsletter/Ezine advertising
- Social media
- Email marketing (if you already have a list)

That's the key to being able to approach JV partners when it comes time to launch your own product within JVZoo or from your own website. Even if they don't personally know you, they'll be able to RECOGNIZE you instantly.

Begin by choosing 2-3 vendors to promote. Then, create campaigns around their hottest-selling products. Create bonus offers to entice potential customers to purchase through your affiliate link and launch a full-scale marketing campaign that includes social media (Twitter, Facebook, Pinterest, etc), run solo ads, create an email list through www.Safe-Swaps.com and through forums and community sites.

The more effort you put into driving in new customers, the easier it will be to build a long-term business of your own because not only will you make money from the offers you promote but you'll put yourself in a position of being able to call on the gurus to promote your products in return!

Once you've proven that you can bring in customers, you'll be in the position of reaping the many rewards that come to successful affiliates, including:

- Receiving review copies of hot selling products.
- Being notified before public launch (giving you the opportunity to set up your campaigns long before launch day!)
- Being offered a higher commission.
- Receiving private invitations into group events and joint venture partnerships.
- Network opportunities with leading merchants.
- And much more!

So get out there and start promoting reputable vendors and marketers! It's never been easier to build your affiliate business than it is today and JVZoo has made it even easier.

To your long-term success,
